

Visit the Moore International virtual stand to win a Smart TV

10th October 2020

Moore International has unveiled a newly extended virtual exhibition stand at Industry Expo – the world’s leading online industrial exhibition. Visitors to the stand can browse Moore’s most popular products lines, access a selection of literature or even order stock online. Each visitor to the stand is also eligible to enter a competition to win a 40” Smart HD TV.

Moore International is a highly regarded manufacturer and supplier of bearing products and a distributor of ball screws, lead screws and linear products from the UK and Switzerland. The company was quick to see the benefits of exhibiting online on a visual platform that would be seen by over 500,000 visitors globally.

Mark Moore, Managing Director of Moore International, comments: “Moore International has been part of Industry Expo since the show’s launch in 2019. We decided to extend the size of our stand to enable us to introduce a wider range of products – including our brand-new series of high precision planetary gearboxes from Apex Dynamics.”

The Moore International stand can be found in Zone 1 of the Industry Expo virtual exhibition hall at industryexpo.online.
