

Klarius on the ball with new Golf and Polo exhausts

30 November 2021

Klarius Products has added 13 new products to its emissions control range, including new catalytic converters (CATs) for the latest models of the Volkswagen Golf and Polo 1.2. Every product in the Klarius range is available with next morning delivery to stockists, a Fit First Time guarantee and a 2-year warranty as standard.

Complete exhaust systems are now available to fit Ford vehicles such as the Fiesta 1.1 from 2017 onwards and the C-Max/Grand C-Max T from 2010 forwards. Popular Kias are also well supported, with new systems in range for the 2014 Picanto 1.0, 2014-2016 Rio 1.25 and the Sportage Axis Edition from 2015 onwards. The 2012-2015 Volvo V40 SE Lux has access to new aftermarket exhausts too.

New CATs added to range offer support for many popular hatchbacks and saloons. These include the 2013-2016 Hyundai i10, 2011-2017 Vauxhall Insignia 1.4, Ford Mondeo 1.0 for models 2016 forwards as well as the 2012 onwards Audi A3, Seat Leon and Skoda Octavia 1.4. Klarius diesel particulate filters (DPFs) are also here to fit the Audi A3 1.6 TDI, along with the Ford Galaxy, Mondeo and S-MAX 1.6 for 2010-2015 models.

Klarius has the largest range of aftermarket exhausts available in the UK, offering solutions to fit 24 million vehicles on domestic roads, with direct support for over 11,000 applications. During 2021, Klarius has added over 100 new products to its range, providing customers with unrivalled choice. Exhausts, CATs and DPFs are available for cars and vans of almost any make, age and segment. Every product is also offered with a bespoke mounting kit for easy fitting and offers an enhanced service life.

Every applicable product is type-approved, with independent testing carried out with the Vehicle Certification Agency (VCA) in the UK and the TÜV in Germany. All parts are designed to deliver performance that matches or exceeds that of the OEM component. Development, testing and manufacturing is conducted in-house at Klarius headquarters in Cheadle, Staffordshire.

Dynamic stocking, large warehousing capacity and a dedicated logistics operation, AutoLogistiks, ensure that any part ordered before 5.30pm will be delivered to a UK stockist or distributor by next morning. This market-leading delivery service is applicable to all parts in range, whether it is for a popular or niche vehicle application.
