The Honda Civic Type R is renowned for its performance-oriented features, bold styling, and reputation as a "hot hatch." Its powerful exterior design, racing-inspired interior, and track-capable performance have cultivated a distinctive image over the years, appealing to those who crave an exhilarating driving experience.

Fast facts:

- The 'R' in Type R stands for 'Racing,' highlighting the car's motorsport roots and performance focus
- In 2017 the Honda Civic Type R FK8 set the front-wheel-drive lap record at the Nürburgring Nordschleife, showcasing its impressive capabilities

When it comes to maintaining the Type R's performance, Klarius has got you covered. Its product catalogue features over 11,000 applications for a wide range of vehicles, all designed to meet or exceed original equipment manufacturer (OEM) standards. All applicable components meet the requirements of the Vehicle Certification Agency (VCA) in the UK and TÜV in Germany, ensuring adherence to strict quality standards.

Klarius provides a Fit First Time guarantee across its product range, accompanied by a minimum 2-year standard warranty. With a dynamic inventory system, demand-driven manufacturing processes, and extensive warehouse facilities in the UK, Klarius ensures consistent product availability and reduced lead times.

So, if you have a Honda Civic on the ramp and need a replacement exhaust system, Klarius has the solution. Through AutoLogistiks, Klarius' in-house logistics operation, parts ordered by 5.30 PM are eligible for next-day delivery to stockists and distributors in the UK. Choose Klarius for quality exhaust parts that keep your Type R and other vehicles performing at their best.
