

Klarius Group of Companies announces acquisition by CorpAcq

16 October 2024

The Klarius Group of Companies, which includes Klarius, Emissco, KMT, Autologistiks and TIMEC, is pleased to announce that it has been acquired by the private investment company CorpAcq. This acquisition represents a positive new chapter for the company, with no disruption to daily operations or the team's existing management structure.

CorpAcq, a well-established corporate acquisitions firm based in the UK, is known for its successful long-term investments in profitable businesses. It boasts a portfolio of more than 40 companies and has a proven record of maintaining the operational independence of the businesses it acquires.

There will be no change to the current board of directors, ensuring stability and continuity for all employees, customers, and partners of the Klarius Group of Companies. The acquisition aligns with Klarius' goals of continued growth and success, with CorpAcq offering expert financial and management support to help unlock the full potential of the business.

"We couldn't have wished for a better outcome," said John Hood, Finance Director at the Klarius Group of Companies. "This acquisition marks an excellent opportunity for the company, allowing us to continue business as usual while benefiting from the expertise and resources that CorpAcq brings."

Klarius remains committed to its core values and operations, and this acquisition sets the stage for continued growth and innovation in the years ahead.
