

Klarius boosts support for the VW Tiguan with new exhaust parts

24 October 2025

Klarius Products has released 20 new aftermarket emissions control components, expanding availability for over 342,000 vehicles in the UK and more than 1.8 million across Europe. This update includes new parts for a wide range of vehicles from Audi, Chevrolet, Citroën, Peugeot, Ford, Hyundai, Mercedes, Nissan, Renault, SEAT, Toyota, Vauxhall, and Volvo.

Among the highlights is a new exhaust for the Volkswagen Tiguan (2018 onwards). This adds coverage for almost 27,000 vehicles in the UK and more than 70,000 across the EU, offering garages a high-quality solution for one of the most in-demand family SUVs on the market.

The second-generation Tiguan took the popular crossover formula and refined it with the styling, performance and the comfort of a much larger vehicle. Now well into its lifecycle, the model remains a top choice for families and commuters alike, meaning demand for service and repair parts continues to grow.

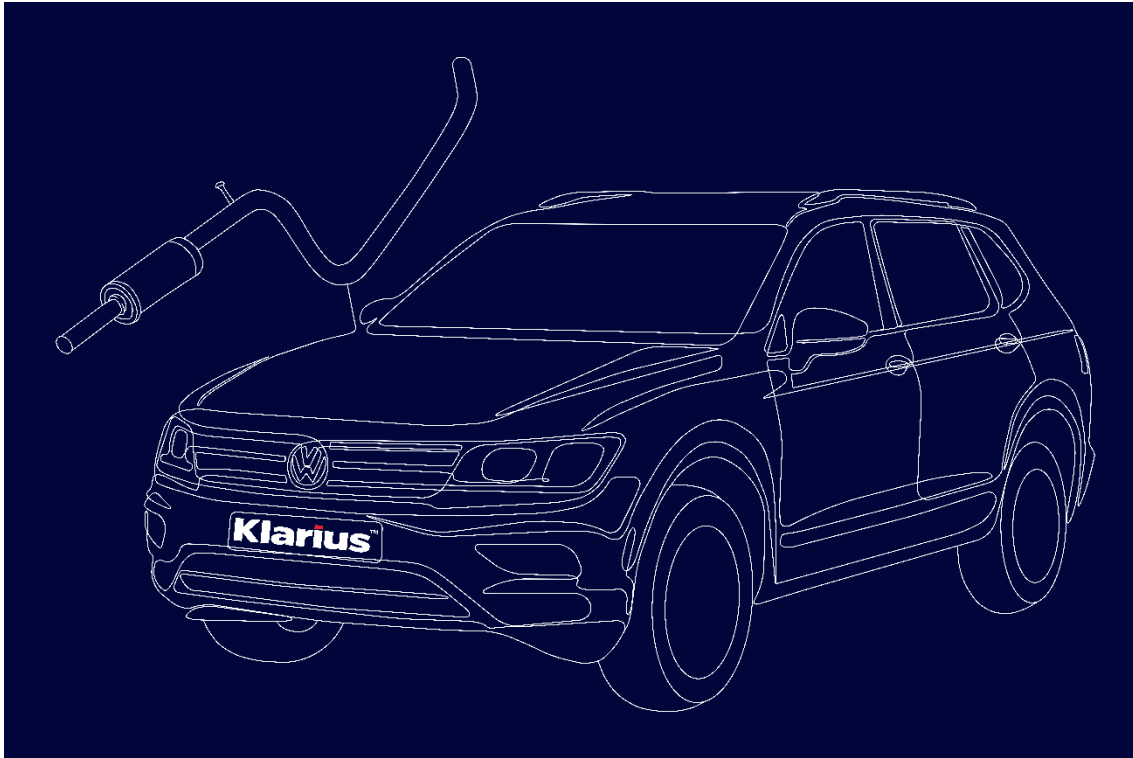

The new exhaust from Klarius provides a direct-fit, OE-quality replacement for garages servicing these increasingly popular vehicles.

Fast Facts About the VW Tiguan:

- Global Appeal: The Tiguan is one of Volkswagen's best-selling models worldwide, with more than 7.5 million units sold since its debut.
- A Tiger-Iguana?: The name Tiguan combines the German words for 'tiger' and 'iguana' and was chosen in a contest by German car magazine publisher Auto Bild.
- Built on MQB: Like many modern vehicles from the VW Group the Tiguan is built on the MQB platform, also used by the Škoda Kodiaq and Audi Q3 Mk2.

With over 11,000 components in its range, Klarius continues to deliver high-quality, fit-first-time parts for vehicles of every type and age. Every product is designed in the UK and is manufactured to meet or exceed OE standards. They also come backed by a minimum 2-year warranty, with next-day delivery available across the UK when ordered before 5:30 PM.
